SUBJECT: New Authorized Lempco Distributor

Anchor Danly has announced that T.R. Goldsmith & Son, Inc. is the new authorized Lempco distributor for the New York region, replacing Zip Industrial Products Corporation.

T.R. Goldsmith is a specialty distributor of mold making and die supplies with over 50 years servicing the industry. As a respected multi-regional distributor on the east coast and down south, they have been an authorized distributor for the Danly IEM & Lamina brands, both part of the Anchor Danly Company, for numerous years. They have three stocking locations; Tonawanda, NY, Rochester, NY & Marietta, GA and a knowledgeable, trained Sales staff to service you.

T.R. Goldsmith carries the full line of Danly, Lamina and now Lempco products, including die sets, springs, pins, bushings, cams, wear products, in-die-tapping units, Accu-Bend rotary benders, die accessories, Lamina hydraulics, urethane products and punches. In addition, they also carry a full line of Carr-Lane & Reid tool, jig and fixture components.

Their regional service center information has been provided so effective November 1, 2009, you can begin contacting them for Lempco product.
